

International students' currency tuition fee schedule, discounts and its allotment

Article (1): present instruction is for the free admission of international students to the University of ZANJAN. The tuition fee is for each academic semester.

Note 1: To facilitate the recruitment and support of international students, some services including accommodation in student dormitories, meals in students' self-service restaurant, student insurance, cost of the student's first trip from Tehran airport to Zanjan, as well as all comfort and sports facilities of the University will be free for them.( In case of disinclination to use the dormitory accommodation and student food services, the amount of about 70% will be deducted from the table below).

Article (2): The Tuition Fee for each semester will be as described in the following table:

Tuition (USD) per Semester	Degree
300-350	Bachelor (theoretical, theoretical-practical)
500-600	Master (theoretical, theoretical-practical)
800-1000	Doctoral (theoretical, theoretical-practical)
The cost of research and laboratory materials, etc.	Post Doctorate

Abstract (3): In case of using the complete welfare package, including dormitory accommodation, student meals, and insurance and other facilities, 750 (USD_ will be added to the amounts in the above-mentioned table per academic semester.

Note 2: The tuition fee for the semester when the student is participating to improve Persian language skills is 50% of the tuition fees table (maximum one academic semester).

Note: 3 summer semester tuition fee is 50% of the mentioned tuition table and in this period the university has no commitment regarding meals.

Note 4: Low-income students, such as applicants from Afghanistan, can receive a 30-50% tuition discount as a Scholarship.

Note 5: The postdoctoral applicants will be charged for food and accommodation in addition to the research costs.

It is free for the applicant to participate in the training courses- with the approval of the professor- without receiving any certificate. In case of receiving a certificate, 150 dollars should be paid for each theoretical credit and 200 dollars for each practical credit.

Note 6: The tuition fee for the semesters in which the student does not receive any course will be 50% of the base tuition fee. This does not apply to the students mentioned in Note 4.

Article (4): The University can support some students with a full or partial scholarship when it deems appropriate.

Note 8: The beginning of the scholarship and the consideration of support will be after at least one semester of study and based on the evaluation of the students by the relevant department and proposing it to the recruitment committee.

Note9: the University can spend a maximum of %10 of the tuition fees earned from all international students in each academic year for international student scholarships. Partial and full scholarships will be within the defined ceiling. Interested international students can compensate and manage a part of the mentioned expenses in the form of student work in various departments required by the university.
